

Introduction

Welcome to the summer edition of Motor Matters.

In this edition, along with our motor deals market and regulation updates, we also provide a further update on the Agency Model.

We also share an article by guest columnist Tim Humphries, who gives his insight on the common "finance" issues you may need to consider in the motor trade. Jamie Coulthard, Senior Associate and Joey U., Solicitor, both from the Commercial Property Team provide a roundup of EPC regulation changes and what that means for dealerships. Jennifer Leeder, Legal Director in our Employment Team discusses the importance of understanding employment statuses. Finally, we speak to Ian and Glen of Turner Motor Group on their business journey.

We hope you enjoy the latest edition of Motor Matters, should you have any questions please do get in touch.

Greg Allan
Corporate Partner
Head of Automotive
T 01603 756418
M 07748 647661
E greg-allan@birketts.co.uk

Featured articles

Common "finance" issues in the Motor Trade

Insight from Tim Humphries, an independent consultant for the Motor Trade.

Read more →

The Agency Model: Further update

Mark Gipson gives his insight on the Agency Model.

Read more →

EPC regulation changes

According to new research from Market Financial Solutions (MFS), more than two fifths of UK landlords are still not familiar with changes to EPC regulations.

Read more →

Employment status in the motor industry

Jennifer Leeder discusses the importance of understanding the differences in employment statuses.

Read more →

Motor deals market update

Greg Allan provides his views on the current situation.

Read more →

Motor sector regulatory update

Information on UK competition law for the sector and consumer duty.

Read more →

Turner Motor Group

We spoke to Ian and Glen of Turner Motor Group to discuss their history and what's next for the business.

Read more →

