

Arnab Dutt OBE

Policy Champion for Procurement and Social Value Federation of Small Businesses

Arnab Dutt is co-founder of Divine Ox a social enterprise partnership with Oxford University. Arnab is Policy Champion for Public Procurement and Social Value at the Federation of Small Businesses the UK's largest small business organisation.

He chairs the working group on social value policy and net zero on the Cabinet Office SME panel and sits on the steering group of the National Social Value Task Force which is supporting ESG impact measurement in local government supply chains. He is a business owner with many years experience in manufacturing and engineering. A Trustee of a charity focused on anti-racism and inclusivity.

Arnab is an Oxford University Said Business School Alumni and continues to teach and partner with the business school developing innovative ways of how public/private sector partnerships can deliver social and environmental impact.